

Nest is an open bulky cup made from groups, roots, and sticks usually bound together with mud, and lined with fine grass.

Northern Ireland Forest School Association

Their nests are crafted with intricate skill, utilizing mud and grass to create sturdy structures for their eggs and young.

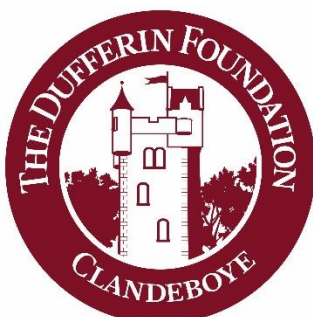

Northern Ireland Forest School Association

Part of the Learning Without Walls initiative

The female builds the nest which is a cup-shaped structure made from dried grasses, leaves, bark strips, and lined with soft downy material such as wool, moss, and spiders' webs.

Part of the Learning Without Walls initiative

Rough circle of stacked sticks in a tree or hedge.

Part of the Learning Without Walls initiative

1

Blackbird (Male)

Diet – Mainly insects and worms

Life span – 3 years

Identification – Black glossy feathers & yellow bill

Reference: Blackbird | Bird Identification Guide | Bird Spot

2

Robin

Diet – Beetles, spiders, worms and kitchen scraps

Life span – 2 years

Identification – Orange breast

Reference: Robin | Bird Identification Guide | Bird Spot

3

Magpie

Diet – Beetles, spiders, worms and kitchen scraps

Life span – 5 years

Identification – Orange breast

Reference: Magpie | Bird Identification Guide | Bird Spot

4

Blue Tit

Diet – Beetles, spiders, worms, nuts and berries

Life span – 3 years

Identification – Adult male blue tits have a yellow-green back and rump, and a blue tail

Reference: Blue Tit | Bird Identification Guide | Bird Spot

5

Wood Pigeon

Diet – Wood pigeons eat mainly plant matter such as leaves, buds, flowers, seeds, and berries

Life span – 3 years

Identification – Make wood pigeons have blue-grey plumage which is slightly duller on their wings.

Reference: Wood Pigeon | Bird Identification Guide | Bird Spot